FUND COMMENTARY

As of 31 March 2023, the net asset value of DCIP Fund units (NAV/Unit) was VND 10,041.09 VND/ unit, increased by 0.7% compared to end of February 2023 and 0.92% Ytd. For March 2023, DCIP outperformed its internal reference index (the average 3months deposit rates of the 4 biggest banks, at competitive level of 5.4%pa.) which increased 0.46%.

During the month, the fund continued adding corporate bond in order to enhance the portfolio's carry while remains the cash at safety level so that the fund can service the redemption. In March, we observed the decreasing in interest rate, especially the government bond yield that created the opportunity of short-term trading for the fund. At end of March, the exposure on corporate bonds was at 84%Total Assets and at 16%TA in cash and bank deposits.

The corporate bonds are selected based on methodologies and procedures which can help to find good issuers and good bonds. All of the bonds' issuers are listed companies that having good credit and also risk management. The bonds' documents are carefully reviewed before disbursement. With the target to maintain Fund's high liquidity and comparatively good return, DCIP will maintain high exposure in liquid corporate bonds and short-term instruments. The CDs and bank deposits portion will be reduced accordingly when new corporate investments are added and vice versa. The priority is liquidity of the portfolio.
